Driving to Success: Let Your Spirit Take the Wheel is a guidebook for entrepreneurs and professionals redefining the answer to "What do you want to be when you grow up?." It uses a driving theme as a metaphor for how people can get in touch with what they really want to do in their professional lives. The book has 17 exercises, or Exits, that help the reader to work through any challenges they might have and help them connect with their authentic self. The book focuses on the author's professional journey from college to where she is today as an entrepreneur. She weaves her personal story in with practical career and spiritual advice to make it an accessible book for all professionals and entrepreneurs.
